“TAKE A SEAT” – WHEREVER YOU GO – WITH FARGASON OUTDOOR’S NEW SCENTITE PACK-R-CHAIR “OUTFITTER”

Let’s face it — we all love the idea of spending time in the great outdoors, but sometimes the reality of it can include some awfully uncomfortable seating arrangements. The innovative team at Fargason Outdoor Technologies, Inc. developed its latest ingenious product with just that issue in mind – the new SCENTite® Pack-r-Chair “Outfitter”, providing hunters who are “on the go” with extra comfort out in the field.

Now hunters who are either taking a break in winter’s snow-filled fields or hunting for big game animals, turkeys and everything else in between, can avoid the discomfort of sitting on cold, wet or just plain hard ground. While lightweight, (a mere three pounds) this well-designed, portable chair provides heavy-duty comfort and durability that easily packs onto your back for transporting it wherever your next hunting adventure takes you.

The system features two roomy main zippered storage compartments, along with gear sections perfect for calls, sunglasses, radios, scents and more. Plus, it has a built in water bottle and generous side pockets for even more storage.

To make carrying it a snap, it has a padded fanny pack with an adjustable waist belt and comfortable padded shoulder and breast straps. With its low profile, you’ll hardly know its there when you’re on the move, but when it’s time to sit, the unbelievable comfort and well-placed amenities will make your day in the field a day in the park.
